

If All Arkansas Read The Same Book

A program of the Arkansas Center for the Book, encourages Arkansans to read To Dance with the White Dog by Terry Kay during the month of August and participate in discussions concerning the book and the ideas the author explores. Mr. Kay will be traveling throughout Arkansas August 20-24. Meet him at a nearby library or bookstore!

The Southeastern Library Association presented Kay with its Outstanding Author of the Year Award in 1991 for To Dance With the White Dog. The book was twice nominated for the American Booksellers Association Book of the Year (ABBY) award. To Dance With the White Dog was presented by Hallmark Hall of Fame on CBS television in 1993, starring Hume Cronyn and the late Jessica Tandy, earning the highest ratings for any television movie of the year with more than 33 million viewers. Hume Cronyn won the Emmy's Best Actor award for his performance of Sam Peek, the character based on Kay's father.
